Michael Clapier, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Coaching is a process of mentoring young people during a critically important and personal time. Important things happen when coaching is done right. Our children create fond memories, learn to love exercise, and begin a lifetime of physical activity. Can it get any better than that? Yes. Against the backdrop of children s games, effective parenting finds a powerful partner when coaching gets done right. Time spent in youth sports is one of the greatest opportunities that parents have to successfully move their children through activities of fun and effort while supporting their journey from child to responsible adult. Coaching Young Couch Potatoes is a journey through that sport centered relationship. In a perfect world everyone grows up healthy, wealthy and strong. Each child loves to play. Parents never argue and happiness follows us all. But, the world we live in is less than perfect. Children are challenged by changing family dynamics and an electronic wasteland threatens to squander their creative play. Coach Michael Clapier declares a fresh look at youth sports and why nothing we do can compensate for failure to invest in children. Our greatest work is reflected by the children we encourage, love and make hopeful. The author shows, through example and technique, how to forge a relationship between child and adult that is capable of molding children into responsible adults while generating success on multiple levels with play. Youth sports and its capacity for good is apparent when coaches and parents are more concerned with the development of the child than simply winning a child s game. The interests of today s child compete with dangerous alternatives of apathy, no exercise and poor...
