Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The President-maker and his intended candidate are in daily communication; they have become firmly attached to each other in the short period of their acquaintanceship. This is not to be wondered at, for there is a striking similarity in their temperaments. Each is endowed with keen perception and wonderful magnetism. Their combined influence has brought to their support the most contumacious of the delegates. On the issue of the following day the hopes of each are centered. Nevins has asked his young champion to visit him at his rooms in an unpretentious hotel on Clark street; there are details for the work of the morrow that have to be carefully planned. In your speech you must dwell upon the causes which led to the formation of the new party, Nevins explains. This must be done briefly; but it will pave the way for your demonstration that a new, a young man must be called upon to make the fight against the entrenched robbers.
