Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Survey of Musical Talent in the Public Schools, Vol. 1: Representing the Examination of Children of the Fifth and the Eighth Grades in the Public Schools of Des Moines, Iowa With the Author s Measures of Musical Talent The psychology of individual differences has made significant progress during the past ten years. In A Survey of Musical Talent in the Public Schools, Professor Seashore makes a marked advance in the applications of psychology by formulating scientific means for analyzing and evaluating special abilities in musical talent: by establishing norms for fifth and eighth grade children; by standardizing methods, apparatus, and technique for group procedure in schools; by presenting fundamental principles for discovering musical talent and conserving musical capacity; and by developing a science of vocational and avocational guidance within this field. This survey was made under the auspices of the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station, which is organizing a comprehensive program for the investigation of individual traits and abilities of normal children with particular reference to the earlier ages. The editor is glad to present this monograph by a recognized authority as a model of one type of applied scientific procedure in which the Station is engaged. The requests for this study which already have been received from this country and abroad assure it a wide field of usefulness.
