From October, 1889, to July. 1891, he was supervisor of New York harbor, when lie became commandant of the League island navy-yard, at Philadelphia. He was commissioned as commodore in June, 1893. and rear-admiral in March, 1894. He was then placed in command of the European station, a place which he retained until November, 1895, when ordered home. Ilis next assignment did not come till Juife, 1896, when he was given command of the Mare island navy-yard, where he remained until prevented from further service by the illness and the operation which resulted in his death. He was retired in July, 1898, but was to have continued his command until the termination of the war permitted his relief by an officer on the active list. He was at his retirement the senior ranking officer of...
