*A fresh e book with an all new viewpoint. It is really simplistic but unexpected situations in the 50 % from the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt: . . . I. THE COURT. FOREWORD. THE United States Court for China is a part of the Federal judicial system corresponding in grade mainly to the District Courts but taking cognizance of certain causes (such as probate, divorce and adoption) which, in America, are entertained only by the state courts; and exercising also appellate jurisdiction of causes originating in the fourteen American Consular Courts thruout China. This United States Court is considered as located in the ninth judicial circuit and appeals lie from it to the Court of Appeals sitting at San Francisco. The test of jurisdiction over the person in this extraterritorial court is the nationality of the defendant. Anyone may be a plaintiff but there must be a defendant subject to American authority in order to confer jurisdiction. The process of the court runs thruout China and anyone therein so subject may be prosecuted or sued in said court. Sessions of the court are held almost continuously at Shanghai and one regular term is held each year at Tientsin in the north, Hankow in Central China and Canton in the south. Special sessions are authorized at any place in China having an American consulate. While nominally established by the act of June 30, 1906 the court was not actually opened for business until early in 1907. Since then it has disposed of nearly six hundred causes, some of them being of unusual importance either in the legal questions arising or in the amounts involved....
