Collection of the Rhode Island Medical Society 1. about 14,000 b. Collection of the Rhode Island Horticultural Society, -2. 148 Placed in the Medical Library and a portion of the stack, and numbering nearly as many more unbound pamphlets and periodicals. The agreement with the Rhode Island Medical Society was signed June 2, 1900: and the transfer of the books to this building was made soon after. Formal announcement of the opening of the medical library in its new quarters was made July 14, 1900. The Rhode Island Medical Society provides its own custodian who attends to the daily duties connected with the collection, and opens the library to readers from 2 to 10 p. Mm except on Sundays and holidays. The library has a purchasing fund and is rich on such subjects as biology, physiology, physiological psychology, hygiene, and other subjects not technically medical, and thus proves an exceptionally valuable addition to the Providence Public Library's available resources for reference. The custodian of the collection is Mr. Howard H. King. 2 Placed in a portion of the Industrial Library. The application from the Rhode Island Horticultural Society was signed April 12, 1900, and the books were transferred to this building in the July following. APPENDIX NO. 2, --continued. c.
