

Environmental Status and Policy in India

By V.S. Ganesamurthy

New Century Publications, New Delhi, 2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. 19 cms. 316pp. Environmental pollution is one of the major problems faced by the world community, especially in the cities of the developing countries which have experienced unbridled growth of population, urbanization and industrialization. Municipal services?such as water supply and sanitation, drainage of storm water, management of solid and hazardous wastes, supply of adequate and safe food and housing?are unable to keep pace with urban growth. The unplanned location of industries in and around urban areas and volume of traffic have caused serious pollution problems. All these factors have led to deteriorating environmental conditions, adversely impacting the health of the people. Environmental degradation in India has been caused by a variety of social, economic, institutional and technological factors. Rapidly growing population, urbanisation, industrial activities and increasing use of pesticides and fossil fuels have all resulted in considerable deterioration in the quality and sustainability of the environment. There are other serious and more insidious consequences for human health arising through poorly planned developmental activities. In particular, there is the whole range of tropical, communicable diseases?such as malaria, filariasis, dengue, guinea worm, Japanese encephalitis etc.?that are becoming more widespread due to...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is in a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
