Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters Exposing the Mismanagement of Public Affairs by Abraham Lincoln: And the Political Combinations to Secure His Re-Election But, if absolute conquest and the obliteration of State lines and State rights is to be the ultimate object, and general disfranchisement of the loyal, the constrained and the deluded, as well as the guilty and the deceivers, attended by sweeping confiscations, is to follow in the wake of our armies, then we may despair of a restoration of order in the South for years to come, and may well tremble for the preservation of free institutions as well as individual liberty in the North. It speaks well for Gen. Grant, that he has exacted no degrading oaths from loyal men in Tennessee, and shown a disposition to protect them in their individual and constitutional rights. It also speaks well for him, that he is not trifling away his time in places of amusement and speech-making, while his bleeding country requires all his energies of body and mind to save it from ruin. When we see announcements of our high dignitaries at entertainments and theatres, we cannot but feel that their presence in these times of general mourning and distress would be more appropriate in houses of prayer, nor can we avoid thinking of that passage in Roman history which informs us that, Nero fiddled while Rome was burning. But we have serious misgivings that Gen. Grant will not be let alone. We fear that should he assert his independence and apply his military skill and sound common sense to the suppression of the rebellion with the least possible general suffering and destruction of human life, he...
