Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Robert is a Florida transplant, originally from the Chicago area. After attending both Purdue and Indiana Universities, he had a 23 year career working with troubled adolescents in Mental Health. Robert had always had a passion for writing, and engaged many of his young patients in writing therapy. In the early 1990 s, Robert s Career was cut short due to changes in the health care system. After a year without work, he was encouraged by friends, family and of course Betty Joe, to let the past go and move on. Robert then entered a career in Real Estate, and developed a successful business as a Real Estate Broker. In 1999, Betty Joe expressed her desire to move closer to her Daughter in Florida. A year later, Robert closed up shop and retired to Southwest Florida as well. However, retirement was short lived and Robert began a second career in Health Care. Robert now spends his time with his partner traveling, gardening and of course writing. The Story of Betty Joe was intended to be a short poem for his Mother. But her incredible struggles to get through daily life needed to be told. From an infant with a poor chance to live, The Story of Betty Joe spans her 80 years and the milestones of her life.
