The book is divided across 4 chapters. The first chapter All for Love is the mother s version of the story where she shares her insecurities and decisions that resulted in her going against her partner. She begins with narration of her affair with her to-be life partner and shares her version where and how the relationship went haywire. Even after all this happened, she maintained she never lost her immense love and respect for her husband and acknowledges that he always loved her more than she could. It was then she realized that her Dad was a Man of Steel - a Lover in true...
