Note. --To this repertory has been added not only what in the former edition had to be given as an appendix, but also what Schussler published since, see page 19. It was considered useful to make some additions from the provings we have received since, Calc. fluor. , by Dr. J. B. Bell, and Gale, sulph. , Dr. Claron M. Conant, and one which will be printed soon, of Natr. phosph. , by Ir. E. M. Farrington. Some of the long-known characteristics of Cede, phosph. have also been added. The valuable confirmations by Dr. W. P. Wesselhoeft, added to the foregoing chapter, have also been referred to in this new repertory. All additions by others have been distinguished by the contributors name in the former chapter. Most symptoms of Gale, sulph. are Conants; a few are from an old proving made by 0....
