Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 244 pages. His name was Jim Racine, and years ago he had been a top heavyweight contender in the United States. But now hes over the hill and desperate, so he takes a fight in a corrupt South American countryand accidentally kills a young man in the ring. The public outrage forces an investigation, and the government refuses to return his passport. Racine is in limbo, but he figures if he can get to the U. S. Ambassador, his problems will be over. But when he crashes the Ambassadors party, he runs into a group of young terrorists who kidnap Racine along with the Ambassador and a few of his friends. When the terrorists murder a couple of bystanders in cold blood, Racine knows the hostages are next. But hes a survivor, and theyre going to have a hell of a time killing himeven if his only escape involves taking all the hostages with him. A writer of enormous talent, a stylist to admire and a storyteller of great power. Scott Turow, author of Presumed InnocentFaust writes beautifully . . . he reminds you of Hemingway and Peter Matthiessen. . . . Faust has it all: lyrical prose, complex characters and provocative plots. BooklistFausts clear, unadorned prose and his deft, pure characterization ring with the force of Hemingway or Graham Greene. Publishers WeeklyRON FAUST is the author of fourteen previous thrillers. He has been praised for his rare and remarkable talent (Los Angeles Times), and several of his books have been optioned for films. Before he began writing, he played professional baseball and worked at newspapers in Colorado Springs, San Diego, and Key West. This item ships from multiple locations.
